

Emmy, Peabody and Gracie award-winning producer and writer Elizabeth (Betty) Buckley is a native Texan with over 25 years of experience in film, television, new media and animation.

Her experience ranges from indie and doc feature films as well as scripted TV series and blue chip TV Specials for broadcaster/streamers including HBO, History, Nat Geo, Curiosity Stream and PBS.

She has BFA in Broadcast-Film Arts from SMU, and studied in the Dramatic Writing Graduate Program at Texas State before becoming an FTE lecturer. She teaches Film Producing as well as The Business of Film, a legacy course created by Tom Copeland, who founded the film concentration program at Texas State.

She is an Alpha Chi Favorite Professors for 2021

She has produced/line produced eight independent feature films and her work in scripted broadcast television has been seen in over 30 countries, with production experience that has taken her from Hawaii to the Costa del Sol in Spain.

She and her family live in the Texas Hill Country where they run a Tiny House business dutifully guarded by their Great Pyrenees.